Hot Stuff

Successful investors are like chillies.
They start out green and end up red hot.

Players in the Game

There are many types of investors: Thrill Seekers, Sheep, Black Sheep, Pigs, Ostriches and Honest, Hardworking Types. The question is: Are you in the driver's seat, or are you one of the mob being taken for a ride?

Be Persistent

. . . and you will eventually hit the jackpot.

Goldrush

All that glitters is not gold,
so don't automatically rise to the bait.

Good Mates

The wonderful thing about good friends, is that they alert us to potential risks so we don't go over the falls.
